Safety / Driving With the new year, a new law banning cell phone use while driving, unless you have a hands free device. Drivers caught talking without a hands free device while driving will face a fine of $142. Because of the demand for the devices, many store's shelves are empty.	Hands Free Cell Use	News	1/1/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p, 5p	11
Community Service / Animal Protection Help control the dog and cat population--spay or neuter your pet.	SNYP1	PSA	1/1/2010		7
Consumer Affairs / Consumer Info Starting January 10th, you'll need to dial 1 plus the area code before making a telephone call. The change comes with the addition of a new area code, 458, to the area. The state says it's simply running out of 541 telephone numbers.	10 Digit Dialing	News	1/4/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	7
Business / Tourism The Napa Valley is getting a run for its money; the Applegate Valley in Southern Oregon was named the next big wine country by Sunset Magazine. The magazine says the reason they love it here is the exciting wines, few crowds and inexpensive tasting fees. They are encouraging all their readers to pick up an Applegate Trail map and hit the road.	Applegate Valley	News	1/4/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Transportation / Safety As of January 1st, motorists have to move over or slow down for tow trucks and roadside assistance vehicles or face a fine. One tow truck driver says he's glad something was finally done for their safety.	Move Over	News	1/4/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Law Enforcement / Laws A new law is now in effect, designed to crack down on puppy mills. Large scale breeding houses are now limited to 50 dogs, the law also pushes for humane treatment of dogs. Oregon previously had no statewide law to regulate puppy mills. The new law does not affect small-scale breeders.	Puppy Mills	News	1/5/2010	6p, 11p, 6a	3
Political Process / Measures The local fight for Ballot Measures 66 and 67 is heating up. Republican Representative Sal Esquivel is pulling out all the stops, hosting a call center spreading his message of don't vote for Measures 66 and 67 in January's special election. The goal is to call voters and explain the issues so more people understand it. Ballots will go in the mail on January 8th and election day is January 26th. A debate was held at Rogue Community College on January 11th; the debate focused on the pros and cons of Measures 66 and 67. The two issues attempt to handle the state's budget crisis.	Ballot Measures	News	1/5/2010	5p, 6p, 6a, 12p	10
Law Enforcement / Sex Crimes Ashland Police are shocked after responding to two brutal rapes within city limits in a matter of days. Schools and the community are being advised to be on heightened alert, travel in pairs, and take other measures to stay safe until the suspects are caught. Police are uncertain whether the two cases are related. News10 follows the story. 2/24/10: ATM surveillance video has been released that police hoped would help them crack a string of unsolved sexual assaults in Ashland. They worked for weeks to get their hands on the footage. Unfortunately, the video is too dark, grainy and far from the crime scene to help.	Rape	News	1/5/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	30
Taxes / Federal Tax season is coming and if you have questions for the IRS, make sure to budget plenty of time. The agency offers a toll-free help line, but says only 7 out of 10 callers will actually get through. If you're one of the lucky ones to get through, expect to be put on hold for an average of 12 minutes before being connected to an actual person.	Tax Season	News	1/6/2010	5p	1
Consumer Affairs / Prices Oil prices are on the rise again and prices at the pump are following right behind. In fact, gas is on track to top last year's highest levels. Oregon's average prices is $2.74/gallon and the national average is $2.68. Energy experts predict prices will keep ticking higher into the Spring.	Oil Prices	News	1/6/2010	5p	1

Quarter: January-February-March 2010

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	AIR DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
Law Enforcement / Theft A new organized crime is hitting subdivisions across the city of Grants Pass. A group of thieves called Car Clouters are targeting one driveway after the next, breaking into cars and stealing. Grants Pass police say its happening in neighborhoods on all sides of town.	Car Clouters	News	1/15/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	3
Community Services / Feeding A massive donation of food to a local food bank coming just in time. The Ashland Food Co-Op donated about 1600 pounds of chicken to Access in Medford the help feed needy families throughout the Rogue Valley. The timing couldn't be better; one woman with Access says their supplies are down this month because of all the food they gave out during the Holidays.	Food Donation	News	1/15/2010	6a, 12p	2
Environment / Winter Weather 100 mile/hour winds on the Mt. Ashland summit and heavy snow in Siskiyou County is causing road closures and power outages. In other areas, high winds are causing damage. News10 follows this multi-system storm and its effects on Southern Oregon and Northern California.	Winter Weather	News	1/18/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p, 5p	23
Political Process / Voting There's still time to mail in your ballot for next Tuesday's election. If you wait until Thursday, you better drop it off in person at one of the certified drop sites. Drop sites are the Elections Office on West Main, the public library in Ashland, or City Hall's in Rogue River, Central Point, and Eagle Point. On the ballot, controversial Measures 66 and 67. Voters will decide whether to raise taxes on people earning $125,000 or more a year individually or $250,000 per household. Plus, the Measure to raise the corporate minimum tax currently at $10. Measures 66 passed with 54% of the vote and Measure 67 passed with about 53%. Most of the "yes" votes were concentrated in one part of the state. Eastern and Southern Oregon said "no" to the tax increases; the Measures passed in just 11 of Oregon's 36 counties.	Vote	News	1/19/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	22
Education / School Buses For Medford school bus drivers, it's more money and better benefits or else. They're threatening to strike against the company they work for. If they do strike, your kids will still have a ride to school. The Medford School's Superintendent says he's been working to on ideas to ensure transportation for kids. The bus drivers voted to strike at a Union meeting. They say they're disappointed they have to go to such extreme measures to get better treatment from their company. Drivers met with their Teamsters Union Febraury 2nd to vote on an offer made by their employer, First Student. They decided NOT to strike.	Bus Driver Strike	News	1/22/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	14
Law Enforcement / Public Safety Shady Cove is one step closer to voting away their police department. All five City Councilors voted to eliminate their police department. Shady Cove has a modest force of just four officers, when they're fully staffed. Now those officers will still be employed, the only thing changing is the color of their uniform and they transition to contracted law enforcement. The Department closed their doors for good on February 3rd. The city will now contract with the Jackson County Sheriff's Department.	Shady Cove Police	News	1/22/2010	6a, 12p, 6p	5

Law Enforcement / Sex Crimes An update to a story we've been following closely. Ashland police are investigating five, possibly six, reported sexual assaults since mid-December in the Ashland area. Police do not believe the two newest cases are related to a New Years Eve rape. They do not have anyone behind bars for any of the six reported cases.	Rape Folo	News	1/25/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5

QUARTERLY ISSUES & PROGRAMS LIST FOR KTVL-TV MEDFORD
Quarter: January-February-March 2010

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	AIR DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
Recreation / Outdoor The City of Medford is moving forward on a multi-million dollar water park. It's an idea the city has been talking about for months and early estimates put a $13 million price tag on the project. The city plans to continue gathering information for the next 2-3 months, then they will present a final proposal to the City Council, who must approve the project.	Water Park	News	1/27/2010	5p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Political Process / Health Care Dozens of demonstrators lined the streets in downtown Medford rallying for healthcare reform. The message for Democrats, senators, and the President was swing for the fences, stop working with the other side for bipartisan legislation.	Healthcare Reform	News	1/28/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
Environment / Recycling Oregon's electronic waste recycling program is more successful than expected. In the first year, the program brought in almost 19 million pounds of waste. Old electronics can be dropped off at the transit station on Table Rock Road in Medford.	Electronic Recycle	News	1/28/2010	5p, 6a	2
Economy / Housing The tax credit for new home buyers will end in April and local realtors are hoping sales will not drop off because of it. There will be other programs available to help people get a home after the tax credit runs out.	Housing Recovery	News	1/28/2010	5p, 6p, 11p,m, 6a	4
Community Services / Veterans Jackson County Commissioners say they have a shot at a $100 million veterans facility. It would provide jobs and take care of the large veteran population in the Valley. If Jackson County is chosen, Commissioners predict it could draw people from Northern California, Idaho and Oregon.	Vet Facility	News	1/28/2010	11p, 6a	2
Political Process / Measures Less than 48 hours after the special election and the passing of Measures 66 and 67, Southern Oregon business owners and professionals meet for their annual business conference. All agree the new taxes will not help the area's economic recovery, but say it's not all bad. The conference is held by SOREDI in an effort to strategically look at the challenges business owners and professionals are facing in this recession.	Effects of 66 & 67	News	1/28/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
Political Process / City Government Controversy surrounds the Grants Pass City Council once again. A voter's pamphlet will not be in the mail for a March special election to fill city council seats and some people are calling the move a miscarriage of the democratic process. The public will have a chance to get to know the candidates at a forum at the City Council Chambers on February 2nd. Candidate profiles can also be found in the Daily Courier newspaper. A Josephine County man didn't like the idea that there would be no printed pamphlets, so he is digging into his own pocket to make sure information is available. The Grants Pass Mayor says they didn't expect such outrage and plans to distribute pamphlets for future elections.	GP City Council	News	1/29/2010	6p, 11p, 5p, 6a	8
Environment / Water Supply The winter storms that have caused so many problems in California are doing some good. Snow pack is at about 115% of usual, a big improvement over last year when the snow pack was just 61% of normal. It might not mean much for farmers; Federal regulations intended to protect fish are limiting water deliveries from the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta.	Snow Pack	News	1/29/2010	5p	1
Political Process / Legislature Oregon lawmakers went back to work in Salem. They have to come up with a way to fill a $100 million budget shortfall; they're also expected to discuss a ban on plastic bags, changing the Kicker refund law, and extending unemployment benefits.	Legislators	News	2/1/2010	5p, 6p, 6a, 12p	5
Law Enforcement / Traffic Medford Municipal and the Jackson County Justice Courts are offering amnesty on certain cases between now and April 30th to people who have not paid their traffic fines. The courts hope the program will get some outstanding fines paid.	Amnesty	News	2/1/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5
Transportation / Safety There are only two Toyota dealerships in this region and both say their troubles are only getting worse. Both were planning on getting parts shipments, but neither did. They anticipate receiving the parts tonight so they can start fixing cars tomorrow. If you're concerned about your car, call one of the dealers and make an appointment.	Toyota Recall	News	2/4/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
